PREFACE

This report is one in a series on Soviet Ground Force and Logistic installations being prepared for a DIA/CIA Panel. The series is being coordinated, published and disseminated by NPIC. The photographic analysis is being performed by the NPIC Photographic Analysis Group, the CIA Photographic Intelligence Division (NPIC), and the Production Center 1P1c (DIA). The photographic analysis for this particular report was performed by the CIA Photographic Intelligence Division.

In the interest of uniformity, the titles and letter designators for the facilities observed at these installations are identical with those appearing in the project requirement. When a specific facility is not observed both its title and letter designator are omitted in the report.

Titles and letter designators for the various facilities are as follows: (A) railroad service, (B) road service, (C) landing strips, (D) administrative and troop housing areas, (E) storage areas, (F) ammunition storage areas, (G) POL storage areas, (H) other buildings and facilities, (J) equipment storage/maintenance areas, (K) athletic fields, (L) small arms firing ranges, (M) driver training areas, (N) tank/assault gun firing ranges, (P) flat trajectory firing ranges, (Q) artillery emplacements (batteries), (R) infantry or combined arms field training areas or courses, (S) special training facilities, (T) unidentified facilities or tracking activity.

SUMMARY

A probable military barracks area is located in the southeastern section of Omsk, 8 kilometers (km) southwest of Omsk East Airfield and 6.5 km east of the railroad bridge over the Irtysh River (Figure 1).

The installation is served by secondary streets of Omsk (Figures 2 and 3). It covers 30 acres and consists of 13 probable barracks, one probable administration and 11 support buildings within a secured area and three support buildings outside the area.

Lack of good quality overhead photography precludes determination of the military function of this installation. Changes are not discernible from available photography. The installation was covered by [] KEYHOLE missions []

DESCRIPTION OF INSTALLATION

Road Service

The installation is served by secondary streets of Omsk.

Aircraft Landing Strips

No airfields are organic to this installation; however, several are located within the urban complex.

Administrative and Troop Housing Areas

Area D contains 13 probable barracks, one probable administration building, and 11 support/general storage buildings.

Other Buildings

The function of three support buildings located in Area H cannot be determined from available overhead photography.

Athletic Field

Area K is probably used as a soccer field.
